

"TELL MY FRIENDS TO BE BRAVE AND FEARLESS. AND LOYAL TO THE GREAT COMMON PEOPLE."

MARETBURG.

The writer visited Beelick this week.

S. H. Martin visited Brodhead Saturday last.

Mr. Jop McCall has been having his house newly painted.

Mr. Samms began to move to his place near here Monday last.

Mrs. Robert Ham and daughter, pretty Miss Patsy, visited Crab Orchard last Saturday.

Mr. Haartz, the depot agent of this place, has been bedfast for the past day or two.

Rev. Burnnet, of Flat Lick, conducted services at Sayer's school house on last Sunday.

Quite a number of this immediate neighborhood attended church at Brodhead Sunday night.

J. J. Mullins and wife started for Ottenheim Thursday last via Beelick and returned Sunday.

Mr. Hays, known as "Brandy," has arrived from the west, where he and family have been for some time.

Mr. Jop McCall attended the burial of Willie, the little son of Mr. I. Herring at Crab Orchard, last week.

Mr. Milton Cummins enjoyed being highly entertained by the pretty little conversationalist, Miss Grace Mc Call, Sunday last.

Production of the forest seems to be plentiful as the boys are bringing, all the while, staves, tan-bark and ties, which never gives out.

Mr. Oscar Ham, the "hustling" farmer has most of his farming land in a splendid condition, already, and improving, he is worthy to be called a "good" farmer.

The programme that was carried out Saturday night last at Sayers school house upon the subject, Resolved: "That women have done more to christianize and moralize the world than man," was as follows: Affirmative, Willie Owens, Burt Roberts and Miss Altie Owens. Negative, W. T. Mullins, Walker Owens, (not present) and Miss Lizzie Painter. The judges were unable to render a decision in favor of either so they conferred equal honors. The subject for Saturday week night will be the biography of great men.

If the question should be asked every good man of Rockcastle county, do you wish to elect the very best men to the various county offices, the response would be yes. Admitting that best men promote and accomplish most good, then you should be indeed careful as to how you exercise the greatest natural right you possess on the almost approached election day. Could you answer and cast your vote otherwise? Most candidly you must answer no, without voting to retard the happiness, progression and prosperity of the good people of this county. It is not always best to vote for the nominee and thereby become contaminated with party prejudice, but with a clear conscience. Clay said "I had rather be right than be president," so every good citizen of this county had rather vote right than to cast a retarding reflection upon the virtue and goodness of this county's people. And as the responsibility of a sheriff is great you want a man of great confidence, a man of unswerving honesty, of unapproachable character, a man with whom you can trust your writs, with the carrying out to the possibility of executing his duties and with your county's money. If you want a gentleman to aspire to that office and upon which our county's property so which depends, a gentleman of standard morals and who would appreciate only to raise the standard of this people higher a gentleman, who does not visit the saloon but condemns them and is at all times perfectly sober, and one whom you know has a clear record and unstained character and will if elected discharge well his duties and arrest you though you are a Republican, a Democrat or a little "Pop," and one who will compel you to appreciate your vote if cast it for him and will, also, show his appreciation by making you a good one as you now have, we will say, you can vote for no better than "Gus" Stewart.

A CARD.

To The Voters of Rockcastle County:

Having made the announcement of my candidacy rather late I will be unable to see each voter in person before the election next Tuesday although I would be glad to do so. I urge upon my Republican and Democratic friends to go to work in my behalf as victory seems assured, and cease not your labors until the poles close Tuesday afternoon.

If elected as your sheriff I shall faithfully execute your papers, collect your taxes, pay off promptly your county claims and do everything in my power to comply with every duty of that office. I desire here to state and pledge myself that if the question of election officers is left to me which would be in case of a disagreement between the election commissioners I would divide the election officers equally, giving each party the same number of sheriffs. This is fair and that rule shall guide me in the conduct of my office.

The circuit, quarterly and county courts shall be promptly waited on and the commands and directions of the judges shall be speedily executed. I appeal to the people of Rockcastle to study carefully the best interest of your homes and the county and if in your wisdom it should fall my lot to be your next sheriff I assure you in advance that I shall never cease to kindly remember the gracious deed done and realizing the responsible trust that it would carry with it I shall do everything possible to perform the duties of that important office acceptably to you.

I beg to remain,
Yours truly,
A. W. STEWART.

EDITOR SIGNAL:

I wish to say I am a Republican, and, when my party puts up, as good a man as the Democrats. I always vote the Republican ticket. But in the case for sheriff, I think Gus Stewart is the man we should vote for.

I lived as his neighbor for 16 years and I know all the statements made in this paper by W. H. Jones about his many good acts are true. He is the kindest and best neighbor I ever knew. He is strictly honest and sober and a Christian gentleman. He is a good business man. He is fair and just. He is always first to help those in want or distress.

For us to elect a man to office who is not a good and safe man injures our party and often causes many of the best people to leave us.

I know Gus Stewart would do Republicans right—he always has. He will administer the office without regard to politics, and do justice to all.

Being a law-abiding man himself, he likes to see the law enforced. Let us elect Stewart and we will not regret it.

T. C. JOHNSON'S REPLY.

Brodhead, Ky., Oct. 30, 1901.
EDITOR MT. VERNON SIGNAL.

Allow me to vindicate myself through the columns of your valuable paper as to the charges alleged against me by Mr. Democrat in the Kentucky Colonel of week.

In the first place he calls me a pure man from Brodhead. Well, I hope I am a purer man than the whisky grog, that alleges this to me, although I never told any man living that I was a pure man, I wish I could and tell the truth. So he is a liar if he says I did.

He also alleges that I took funds belonging to the county; spent it for ginseug and for my own benefit, but does not say, I promptly paid the county, as I did. He only wants to indicate to the public that I have done some great crime and he hopes to clear up Mr. Tate by holding a "lie" up to the public about myself, for I think this was his only way getting at my questions of last week to Mr. Tate.

This slimy Democrat also alleges that I owe G. Marshal & Co., $16 39. I must say I do not even know firm by that name and there is no truth in anything pertaining to this.

I don't know this Democrat, but I imagine, if he was held up to the people, that they would see a slimy gambling drunkard, of the blackest mark.

Now Mr. Democrat, I want you to distinctly understand that I am a Republican and you can not give me the go by, by singing your Democracy and voting for H. L. Tate, if he is good enough Democrat for you, he will be Republican enough for me. So if you want to come at me any more as to my character, please sign your name and don't be a dog under the hay.

Don't forget that I will not lay still under such accusations as you may put against me, only give your name and I will respond to you and don't you think I will be silent as the tomb, like Mr. Tate, and resent nothing that I am accused of.

T. C. JOHNSON.

I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

We notice that the Republicans are being urged to vote for Tate for Sheriff, merely because Stewart is a Democrat and Tate a Republican. We ask you, as honest, sober, right-thinking and law-abiding citizens, who love not party less but country more, is this for the best interest of the people? Is this the way to build up our common country? Is this the way to have honesty and fair dealing in high places? In fact, is it the best way for the upbuilding of any party? Experience has taught and observation has shown us, that the party of principle and an honest purpose, with honest men at the helm of state, is the party that weathers the storm, and survives the wreck of time. Why has the Republican party for forty years been a party triumphant? Because such men as honest Abe Lincoln, true and patriotic Garfield and the myrtled McKinley guided the ship of state. The party defeated their Follies and unworthy sons and placed its banner in honest and true hands. That which is true of the nation is true of the county. Stewart is honest. He is fair. He is just. If you have doubts of this, go ask those who live about him. Ask those who for years have seen him daily and had personal dealings with him. Don't go to those who have just come to the county and scarcely know him even by sight. Don't ask those, who live in a remote part of the county from him, but ask his neighbors. Ask those, who know and not those, who guess. Those, who know him tell you he is honest, sober, reliable, non-partisan in action and the most charitable of men. They tell you, Republicans though they be, that they are willing to trust him and will vote for him for sheriff. They tell you, no stain ever rested on his character. No blot upon his name and that no ignoble act has characterized his journey on the earth. Can you say as much for Mr. Tate? If you wish to find a man's true character, don't go to those who don't know him, but ask those, who do know him and have had dealings with him. All the evil and the many charges that have been made against Mr. Tate, come not from Democrats,—not from strangers—but those who know him best, and those of his own political household. Why should they lie on him? Why should they not tell the truth? Their interest is to prove him honest and true to every trust, yet what do they say? Charges, grave and serious, were made against Mr. Tate during the primary, not by Democrats but by the leading Republicans of the county. He then promised the people that when the primary was over, he would set himself right. On this ground many voted for him, who would not have otherwise done so. They had a right to expect of him that he would be as good as his promise. Has he done so? Time has come and gone, seasons have changed, flowers have bloomed and faded, leaves have grown and withered since this promise was made to the people, whose sheriff, he wishes to be, yet he is as silent as the grave, he opens not his mouth in his own defense. Those, who now urge you to vote for him, do so not because he's honest, not because he is true, not because he will make a good sheriff, but alas, because, and only because, he is a Republican. Those, who have gone into print and asked the people to vote for him, do not even attempt to vindicate him from the many charges made against him. If the charges are not true, why do not these gentlemen tell you so? His and their silence is a full confession. Why didn't they say that he is the proper man for sheriff? Why didn't his brother-in-law, J. F. Griffin say so, and not be so circumscribed in his language as to merely say, "so far as I PERSONALLY KNOW, Mr. Tate has made an efficient officer. Voters of Rockcastle, the leaders of the Republican party have said that Mr. Tate is not a suitable man for sheriff. The present sheriff had to discharge him. They know him well and give him not a certificate of good character; but they say he has been recreant to duty, has done many things that he ought not to have done, and has left many things undone that he ought to have done. Let us not put party above country, but country, home and native land above party. Then peace and quiet will walk hand in hand in our midst, the pale cheek and witted brow will be lighted up anew and Rockcastle will be the home of thrift and plenty. This is not a political contest, but a contest for the betterment of our country. Vote for Stewart and we will guarantee that no word of condemnation will rest at his door, and no man will regret that A. W. Stewart came first under the wire in this race.

In some quarters, there seems to be a misunderstanding as to how Mr. Stewart became a candidate for sheriff. At our convention, it was decided not to put out any candidates at that time, but the convention delegated that work to the county committee. Then it was that people from all parts of the county regardless of politics began to insist on Mr. Stewart making the race. The members of the County Committee then met as directed in convention and in carrying out the duty delegated to them, selected Mr. Stewart as a candidate for sheriff and asked him to run. He sought not the place, the place sought him, and he agreed to run only after the most urgent requests made by Democrats and Republicans alike. Now it is our duty to elect him, and, if on the day of the election we make a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together, he will be the sheriff of old Rockcastle.

The people of Kentucky are to have another visit from Inspector Rising, who comes to look over the field for free rural delivery, and they should take advantage of the opportunity. They can get their mail delivered at their doors if they will take the trouble to ask for it and to see that the roads are good, which they ought to be anyhow. With good roads and free rural delivery, the value of real estate would rise and farmers would be put in closer touch with all the markets for their commodities, besides which their families and themselves would be happier and more contented. Fewer farmers' boys would go to town and city, abandoning comfortable homes and an independent life to eke out a laborious existence and one that puts them at the mercy of their employers.

With such advantages as these to be had for a little exertion, there is no reason why Kentucky may not soon be covered by the mail-carrier on his daily delivery trips. The objections of the fourth-class postmaster who hopes to hold his trade by his exclusive privileges ought not to have any weight with the people. Get up petitions and have them approved by your Representative in Congress or your Senator; get good maps made, and the Government will do the rest.

FISCAL COURT.—The Fiscal court met this week and allowed county claims.

When in Livingston stop at the Old Fashion restaurant.

T. G. Wells Prop.

F. H. Hardy, of the White Rock Lime Co., is doing a rushing business. His lime is giving best of satisfaction.

Mr. James White who moved from her to Lancaster is we are glad to say working on several contracts and getting along nicely.

The Lancaster Record is a peach, but it don't improve, from the fact there is no room for it. It is at the top and can't get any topper.

Mr. G. W. Gentry lost a hog yesterday, weighing about 250 pounds, supposed, from all indications, to have died of hydrophobia.

TAXES.—On account of time I did not get to advertise Livingston precinct, this week but will have it in next issue with every delinquent tax payer.

HENRY CATRON, S. R. C.

Home enterprises first, others to follow, provided they don't kill home affairs by undue promises that were never expected to be fulfilled by the parties making the propositions. The telephone salvation for instance.

Wanted agents in every town and every postoffice to sell Climax Salve. Liberal commission will be paid or valuable premiums. Send order with reference for six boxes for trial. Apply to T. G. Wells Box 41 Livingston Ky.

In this issue you will note the advertisement of land to be sold for taxes. More will follow next week. I propose to collect these taxes before the first day of January.

HENRY CATRON, S. R. C.

TO THE SOUTH.—The L. & N. will, on the first and third Tuesdays in November and December, sell tickets to all the different points in the following states, at a very low rate: Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. For further particulars see the ticket agent at your station.

Telephony, a Chicago electrical journal, in its last issue, gives a prominent piece in its columns, for a paper read by our townsman James Maret, at Owensboro Oct. 2 on subject of the "Rapid Development of The Telephone by the Independents." Several thousand copies were called for by companies from different states the Signal did the printing.

Are you for home insulations and enterprises which distribute their earnings in our locality or are you for foreign corporations who take from the county all their income and leave none with the people? Then consider when the question arises here. The Bell telephone company is working to establish exchanges at Livingston and Mt. Vernon in opposition to our local people. The history of the Bell company which had a monopoly of the telephone business for 20 years and subjected the people to an extortion out to convince us that such companies are not beneficial to the country. While they may be permitted to run their so called "long distance" through the county, we surely don't consider it to our interests to have them enter the "exchange" field here, crush out our local exchange and raise rates to a point beyond reason.

Last night being Hallow'en, Miss Rissie Williams gave the young folks a party in keeping with the occasion.

SUICIDE.—Mrs. John Newell, of Somerset, who used to be Miss Lola Haley committed suicide yesterday, by blowing her brains out with a pistol. She had thought for some time, she was losing her mind.

Messrs Wade and Oliver telephoned the Bank here last night, to with-hold payment of a check of theirs for $15.00 made payable to James R. Parrott, stating that a cow, which they had bought from Parrott, had been stolen from a man by the name of Cortell living near Livingston, and that the owner had come for the cow.

We understand and effort is being made to secure the services of Miss Cox to take charge of the music department at the college. Miss Cox is so well and favorably known; and her work in former years has given such universal satisfaction, that it will be a glad day to all interested in our school to know that she will take up her abode with us again.

The Fiscal Court has changed the arrangement as to Road Commissioners, and instead of having eight there are only four, one for each magisterial district. The following commissioners were appointed for the year 1902: First district W. B. Whitehead, Second district M. R. Jones, Third district H. M. Mink, and Fourth district W. H. Brown.

VERTIGO.—The Rev. J. C. Carmical, on his return from an appointment at Preachersville, while waiting for the train at Crab Orchard, had an attack of Vertigo, and falling broke one rib, dislocated or partially so, his collar bone, besides receiving several other severe bruises. The Drs. report him to be getting along very nicely and we hope before many days to be able to again see this good man on the streets.
